

The Constables of Limerick Castle.

Prepared by Brian Hodkinson , Asst. Curator.

The following list is compiled from a wide variety of sources so the level of information is consequently somewhat varied. The three documents naming constables in the Black Book of Limerick are all undated. To get a rough date for these it was necessary to consider others named in the documents to see if they appeared in dated documents. These names are inserted where deemed appropriate. Others are listed with a range of known dates. In many cases where there is a single mention in a document, the constable may have been in position for some time before and continued in place afterwards. In the case of exchequer payments these are given as covering a fixed period, but the same caveat applies except where it is obvious from the list. In the latter part of the 15th century the Desmond monopoly was institutionalised by making the position hereditary, however this was lost in Silken Thomas?

The position of constable of the castle was often combined with that of sheriff of Limerick. Where this is certain the name is followed by an (S)
