Monday 31st August 2017

As Cathaoirleach of Adare-Rathkeale, I and my fellow Councillors, are calling for a Special Meeting of Limerick City & County Council to discuss our disappointment that despite a recommendation from Minister for the Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht Heather Humphries, who visited Knockfierna Hill, Ballingarry, Co. Limerick and at the time advised " that Knockfierna Heritage Site would be an ideal location for the Commemoration but any application would have to be supported by the Local Authority."

This was not brought to the attention of the Local Councillors, by the Local Authority, as instructed by the Minister.

This National Famine Commemoration event will now be held in Ballingarry, Co. Tipperary.
