JOINT POLICING COMMITTEE

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

At Meeting of the Council held on 22nd September, 2014, Councillors Joe Leddin and Ciara McMahon were nominated as two of the Members to represent the Council on the Joint Policing Committee. Councillors Leddin and McMahon have submitted their resignations from the Joint Policing Committee and consequently two vacancies now exists on the Committee.

Membership of the Joint Policing Committee is governed by Guidelines issued under the Garda Síochána Act, 2005. Paragraph 16.5.4 of the Guidelines states:

“A person appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the person in whose place he or she is appointed. A member who is a local authority Elected Member shall cease to be a member of the Committee if (i) he or she resigns by notice in writing to the local authority; (ii) he or she becomes disqualified for membership of the local authority; or (iii) he or she ceases to be a member of the local authority.”

Therefore, the Members nominated to fill the casual vacancies created by the resignation of Councillors Leddin and McMahon from the Joint Policing Committee will fill the vacancies on the Joint Policing Committee for the remainder of the lifetime of the current Council.

A resolution of the Council is now required to nominate two replacement Members.
