Re: Drainage Issues at Courtmatrix –
There is no update on last months position which is set out below

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

Limerick City and County Council has been informed that the deeds of transfer of lands in Courtmatrix has now been resolved after issues of ownership. Limerick City and County Council's legal team will now pursue an agreement with the landowner's solicitor with a view of carrying out the drainage works upon agreement with both parties.

UPDATE

Leahy Solicitors have written to Bobbie Cussen whom acts on behalf of Anita Williamson on the 2nd January and the 12th February 2018. On the 2nd January a draft deed of easement was furnished. To date no reponse has come back from Anita Williamson's Solicitors.

A further follow up was requested by Limerick City and County Council on the 15th March, 2018.

Is mise le meas,
