Name of Conference Local property tax, defining the Role of local councillors Location of Conference The Silver Tassie Hotel, Letter/Kenny Date of Conference 12th - 14th January 2018.

Summary of Conference Content

The conference outlined the development of L.P.T. Over the years. First introduced in 2013 it is based on the price of a house valued at that time. This is to be reviewed in 2019. The price of houses has soared in that time and people are concerned that the bill they receive will be substantially increased. Also there has been much rumblings of the people in Dublin as the monies paid are divided into 80% to local Council and 20% into an National fund. Dublin which has a much higher valuation object to sharing this money with those from outside the Pale.
I believe L.P.T. is a double tax and should be abolished
