Pride of Place

Pride of Place judges Tom and Alison Dowling visited Kilmeedy on 23 July, who were selected as Limerick representatives in the 0-300 population category for Pride of Place competition this year. A presentation was given by members of the Kilmeedy Community Development Group followed by a tour of the village including the Phoenix Project, the Boreen Lane, Geary's Garage, Aras Ide, Kilmeedy Cross/ Fair Field, Fernview Housing Estate, St. Ita's Church, Kilmeedy Graveyard and finishing up at Kilmeedy Horticultural garden. The judges praised the community for their warm welcome and stated that "Kilmeedy was an uniquely special place".

On 31 July, the judges visited Limerick Civic Trust, who were nominated in the Creative Place Initiative category. Following a presentation given by the Chief Executive Officer and a number of Trustees, the judges were taken on a tour of the following sites, which are being renovated by Limerick Civic Trust: Corbally Baths, the Red Path, Bridge Street site, St. Munchin's Church and graveyard. The judges commented, "that Limerick Civic Trust was doing amazing heritage and environmental work, for the past 35 years, which added huge value to the city and environs".

In the afternoon, the judges received a warm welcome at the Children's Grief Centre in the Westbourne Convent, Ashbourne Avenue, South Circular Road, which provides support services to children and young people who are affected by loss through bereavement, separation or divorce. The Children's Grief Centre was nominated in the "Communities Reaching Out Initiative" category. Following a lengthy presentation by members of the centre, the judges described the centre "as a wonderful initiative making a measurable difference to children who need support in difficult times".

4. National Day of Commemoration

Limerick City and County Council hosted the National Day of Commemoration ceremony on Sunday, 8 July. The ceremony was to honour all Irishmen and Irishwomen who died in past wars or on service with the United Nations. In excess of 300 people attended the event representing a broad cross-section of various religious beliefs. The ceremony finished with a minute's silence and the Mayor of the City and County of Limerick, Councillor James Collins laid a wreath.

5. Customer Services

Following from the integration of the Housing Maintenance Department, along with answering all maintenance calls, a total of 773 cases were logged by our Customer Services teams in both Merchant's Quay and Dooradoyle in July alone.

The department also aided the Public Lighting team in the closure of all historic cases, with a total of 978 cases being resolved. Customer Services handled and processed 75 Residential Parking Permits throughout the month of July.

The call centre has continued its success, with our Customer Services Department receiving a total of 12,883 calls throughout the month. This works out at approximately 645 calls per day, with the average response time being 19 seconds for calls to be answered.

Throughout July, a total of 2,725 cases were logged, with the majority broken down as follows;

• Operations and Maintenance:	1,788
1,164 of which being housing maintenance,
773 of those being logged by Customer Services.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

The total number of callers to our counters at Merchant's Quay and Dooradoyle was 2,824.

6. Library Services

- The Granary Library continues a busy schedule of events throughout the summer months. Story time with Caroline for children was held on 11 and 25 July with visits from St. John's School Summer Literacy Camp and Karibu Montessori Crèche Summer Camp on 4 and 18 July.
- The Granary Library hosted its second 'Digital Skills for Citizens Training Course' with the community led local development company Ballyhoura Development CLG, working to support communities, families, individuals and business. The training took place over five two-hour sessions, beginning on 2 July. The aim of the programme is to give people confidence, motivation and skills to take their first steps online. Classes are taught to small groups of six to seven people, who bring along their own devices (iPhone, iPad, Tablet etc.). It involves learning how to search websites, send and receive emails, download and use various applications (WhatsApp, Viber, RTE Player etc.). How to use social media, upload, download and send photos as well as learning about online safety and security.
- On 3 July, an Open University information meeting was held outlining all requirements and options for flexible, part-time study, supported distance and open learning for undergraduate and postgraduate courses and qualifications. An Open University tutor was on hand to answer queries.
- The very popular, free Sahaja Yoga Meditation classes, continue to run on Tuesday evenings throughout the summer months as well as the Short Stories Book Club, The Granary Library also facilitates the International Book Explorers Book Club.
- In July the Granary Library facilitated 'Writespace' workshops with Sarah Moore Fitzgerald – the course is for anybody with an interest in writing, short stories, prose.
- Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) Limerick Support Group meet weekly in the Granary Library.
- The 'Knitter Knatters Group' run by Jane Murphy, meet on a weekly basis in the Granary Library – for anybody who enjoys knitting and a social chat.
- Newcastle West Library hosted two 'Messy Hands' story and rhyme time sessions with hands on arts and crafts on 3 and 10 July. There was a large attendance on both days with parents, toddlers and pre-schoolers thoroughly enjoying the events. Refreshments were provided afterwards giving parents and guardians an opportunity to meet and chat. The social aspect of these sessions is proving very popular. The Summer Stars Reading programme is again in big demand this year with a large number of children registered on the programme. A library wall is decorated with little stars, each representing a participant and endorsing their commitment to reading lots of books over the summer.
- An exhibition of paintings by Paul Weerasakera continued throughout the month, with great interest from the public, as many of the paintings portrayed places of local interest in West Limerick.
- As with the Granary Library, the Knitting Club has continued throughout the summer months at Newcastle West Library, providing great enjoyment for all involved.

Dance Limerick

Preparations have taken place for the refurbishment of Dance Limerick, which is in the long-term custodianship of Limerick City and County Council. This historic structure requires upgrading to ensure efficiencies and a state of the art contemporary space. This improves comfort levels for the creative practitioners, dancers, choreographers and workshop participants and for audiences. It also makes the venue more economical to run. The Dance Limerick application was successful in being awarded funding from Department of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht, Arts and Culture Capital Scheme 2016 - Stream 1.

LEO Festivals and Events Development Programme

The final module of the professional development programme for Festival and Events Organisers in Limerick took place on 25 June. This programme is the result of a panel recommendation as part of the 2017 Limerick City and County Council Festivals and Events Grant Scheme. Feedback from the programme has been excellent with some groups already actively planning and working with their committees on improvements. Attendance at each of the modules was extremely good and all groups engaged with the trainer and each other with great positivity and energy. On the night, certificates of attendance were presented to all participants.

Emerging Writer Mentoring Opportunity – Open Call

In partnership with Words Ireland, a Mentoring Opportunity is offered for an emerging writer living in Limerick to receive mentoring from a professional writer, which consists of four meetings over the next eight months with reading and analysis of the mentee's work in advance.

County Limerick Youth Theatre

The County Limerick Youth Theatre was successful in LEADER funding applications for two projects, Expressing Employability and Theatre in Education. Mentoring support associated with new organisational structures and governance has been brokered.

LEO Festivals and Events Development Programme

This programme is the result of a panel recommendation as part of the 2017 Limerick City and County Council Festivals and Events Grant Scheme. Feedback from the programme has been excellent with some groups already actively planning and working with their committees on improvements.

Festivals and Events Grants

Following the Festivals and Events Open Call, 60 applications were received and the assessment panel met in July. Their recommendations for the allocation of Grants from the Festival and Events Grant Scheme Strand 1 and for the allocation of Grants from the Festival and Events Grant Scheme Strand 2 (a) and (b) went forward for approval to the Cultural Strategic Policy Committee on 10 July and were recommended to the full Council on 23 July for approval. 6. Smarter Travel

Limerick Smarter Travel Route 4 L1171 Old Tipperary Road Improvements Phase 1. This project forms part of the overall LST Route 4 Ballysimon, Castletroy and Newtown.

The improvement works in the Ballysimon area benefit the community and local employment sector connecting the Eastway Business Park and Delta Retail Park with an existing cycling network along the Groody Road to the north and to the Castletroy area via the Golf Links Road. It provides an excellent facility for people to commute to work in the area in a more sustainable manner.

The project was 1.3km in length along the L1171 Old Tipperary Road and 220m along the Garryglass Link Road.

The works consisted of the excavation and reconstruction of footpaths and road pavement, provision of new footpaths, cycle lanes, raised shared surface junctions, public lighting and a signalised toucan crossing. Works also included new road markings, signage, telecommunication ducting, surface water drainage upgrade and lowering/resetting of services chamber covers.
