6. Library Services

- On 18 August, Limerick Library staff booked a promotional stand at the Cappamore Show. This was the first time for the library service to attend and it proved to be a very worthwhile and engaging event. The wide variety of free services provided by libraries: books, lectures, children's activities, internet access, special collections in digital and traditional formats and much more were demonstrated with displays and handouts. Various bookmarks were also available but the most popular were those specially designed to commemorate the big event of that weekend, the All-Ireland Senior Hurling Final.
- It was also a big month for those who completed the Summer Reading Challenge. Awards and certificates were presented to each child who read a minimum of eight books over the summer at special events at Newcastle West and Dooradoyle Libraries. Over 200 children at Newcastle West and over 400 at Dooradoyle received certificates. Renowned author Gabriel Fitzmaurice presented certificates, read some of his poems and sang at Newcastle West. Magicians were on hand at both venues providing entertainment for all the families who participated in this year's event.
- Newcastle West Library hosted a workshop "A Dog's Life" on the morning of 1 August. Dawn Kavanagh from Dogs Trust provided the audience with helpful information on caring for a dog and responsible dog ownership.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REPORTComhairle Cathrach

- On 15 August an interactive reading of Peter Donnelly's book "The President's Glasses" took place in Newcastle West Library. Based on the irresistibly fun story about a forgetful president and his ever-ready pigeon! The president has some VERY important documents to sign at Dublin Castle, but without his glasses, how will he do it? Luckily, the presidential pigeon knows exactly what's happened and follows the presidential car to Dublin Castle, taking in a bird's eye view of the city on his way. The event was jointly organised by West Limerick Resources, the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme (SICAP) and Newcastle West Library. The morning included reading, art/craft activity and a fabulous magic show.
- Throughout the month of August an exhibition titled "Athbheochan 1893-2018 Revival" was on display in Newcastle West. This was a very appropriate pop-up exhibition to celebrate Bliain Na Gaeilge, "Our Irish belongs to us All", Gaeilge Bheo! The beautiful display was sponsored by Conradh Na Gaeilge, Foras Na Gaeilge and by the Culture and Arts Department in Limerick City and County Council.
- The Granary Library hosted a Pirate Radio Exhibition from 7 to 30 August. The exhibition visited Dublin, Wicklow, Waterford and Dungarvan and hopes to generate both interest and funding for a permanent Irish Private Radio Archive to preserve this unique part of Irish radio and social history.
- The Limerick Writers' Centre presented 'On the Nail @ The Library' on 30 August. Special guest readers on the night were Ruth Padel and Neil Donnelly. Ruth's new book, 'Emerald' is on the subject of grief and loss, an elegy to a lost mother. Author of ten poetry collections Ruth's other books include: 'Where the Serpent Lives', a novel on wildlife crime, 'Darwin': A Life in Poems', a verse biography of her great-great grandfather Charles Darwin and eight books of non-fiction. Neil Donnelly is a playwright, poet, screenwriter and writer for radio. His screenplays include No Prisoners, Brown Lord of Mountain and The Big Buck. He was a Harvey's award winner in 1982, writer in residence for Mayo County Council in 1993, and writer-in-association at The Abbey Theatre in 1994. His debut poetry collection, Tullamore Train, was published in 2011. He is a member of Aosdána.
- In Watch House Cross Library three art and craft events were held on the 3, 8 and 10 August. 40 children enjoyed painting on canvass making a summer sun and an alien spaceship. Summer Stars story time was held every Thursday, with children and parents enjoying the weekly event.
- An exhibition of artwork by artist Marian Sheehan was opened on 14 August in Dooradoyle Library. This was a rather unique exhibition of Irish wildlife with many in miniature format. Birds, mice, badgers, deer, squirrels, rabbits, hares and many more animals were included.
- From 1 August, Dooradoyle Library held a large Gaelic Athletic Association Hurling promotion to celebrate Limerick's return to an All-Ireland Senior Hurling Final. The players' photographs and profiles were on display for the month and as the day came nearer, the Library was suitably decked out in the green and white of Limerick. An almost life size image of one of RTE's "Players of the Year", Limerick's No. 4, Richie English stands guard over the children's library. The 1973 team have not been forgotten either and a photograph of the team, made into a tray, looks down from behind the Library desk.
- Titles recommended through a Book Review Project earlier in the year provided the theme for a promotion of lesser-known children's books in the month of August.
