An invitation has been received from the European Covenant of Mayors Office inviting the Mayor of the City and County of Limerick to the ChangeNOW International Summit for Change which takes place in Paris on 28th and 29th September, 2018.

The ChangeNOW summit is the international rendez-vous for positive impact, bringing together hundreds of innovators, investors, media, corporates and mission driven participants, to help scale solutions that can change the world.

ChangeNOW is all about concrete action and innovations that matter – climate change, end of plastic pollution, new forms of agriculture, new models of education, solutions to refugees crisis, clean energy, sustainable cities and other solutions to our most urgent global issues. It is the annual reunion for all enthusiasts who want to shake and shape the world we live in and ChangeNOW celebrates and supports those changemakers.

All EU local politicians of the Covenant community are invited to participate in a Mayors' delegation for the ChangeNOW International Summit for Change.

Mayor's will have the opportunity to meet innovators in the field of energy, climate and environment, fellow politicians from all over the world and to display their achievements in conference sessions on resilience and sustainable mobility

It is proposed that Deputy Mayor, Councillor Michael Collins would attend The ChangeNOW Summit in Paris on 28th and 29th September, 2018.

In accordance with Section 142 (5) of the Local Government Act, 2001, as amended, the approval of the Council is hereby sought for this proposed attendance in Paris with an estimated cost of €1,000.
