5. Update on Dockless Bike Scheme (Dara McGuigan)

6. Notice of Motion submitted by Cllr. E. Hogan (deferred from Metropolitan Meeting)

"I will move at the next meeting that Limerick City and County Council engage with An Garda Síochána to deal with the problem of cyclists using the footpath in Ballinacurra to cycle out of the city, particularly as there is a designated purpose built cycle lane behind the houses"

7. Notice of Motion submitted by Cllr. E. Hogan (deferred from Metropolitan Meeting)

"I will move at the next meeting that Limerick City and County Council reinstate the Christmas Park and Stride arrangements for a 3 month period at Cleeve's Car and possibly at the Bus Eireann yard on Roxboro Road to provide parking support for hard pressed retailers in Limerick City".

8. Notice of Motion submitted by Cmhlr. S. Ó Ceallaigh (deferred from Metropolitan Meeting)

"I will move at the Next Meeting that Chomhairle Cathrach agus Contae Luimnigh extends the cycle lane on Childers Road the entire length of the road from the Parkway Roundabout to Ballinacurra Road".

9. Notice of Motion submitted by Cllr. M Cahillane (deferred from Metropolitan Meeting)

“We will move at the next Limerick and County Council Meeting that the following steps be taken to immediately alleviate some of the transport problems being felt across Limerick city. That Limerick City and County Council –

1. Monitor and enforce penalties for anyone who is parking in the red line designated bus stops.
2. Propose that the terminus for the 304 route be moved from Debenhams to a new terminus in O'Connell Street between Roches Street and Cecil Street which is easier for buses to access, saving time.
3. That the Council demand an input with the National Transport Agency into the planning of bus routes in Limerick.
4. Expand the 301 Augustinian bus stop to avoid congestion.
5. Investigate bus corridors from the City Centre to the University of Limerick”.
