

14th November 2019

To: The Mayor and Each Member of Limerick City and County Council

Report: Recommendations from the Assessment Panel : The Dolores O’Riordan Music Bursary 2019

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

Enclosed is a report and recommendations from the Assessment Panel of the Dolores O’Riordan Music Bursary Scheme 2019.

Dolores O’Riordan, singer, songwriter and lead vocalist with The Cranberries, was one of Ireland’s most enduringly popular artists. Limerick City and County Council has been in regular contact with Dolores’ mother Eileen and her family to discuss ways that Limerick can remember and commemorate the global superstar. Following discussions, it was agreed that The Dolores O’Riordan Music Bursary be established to support a Limerick professional musician to develop their career.

In October 2019 an open call was issued and Limerick based professional musicians were invited to submit applications for the bursary of €4,000, to develop their artistic practice.

Dolores O’Riordan Music Bursary: Successful proposal from Singer-Song Writer, Emma Langford

There were 10 applications made for the Dolores O’Riordan Music Bursary. The panel welcomed the high quality of the applications and made the following recommendation:

Grant Recipient	Grant Awarded
Emma Langford	€4,000

Emma Langford (Singer-Song Writer)

The bursary will provide funding to cover ongoing production for her second album, due for release in 2020. It will contribute to the costs of a music video, for her recently released single, The Winding Way Down to Kells Bay, and support writing for her next record.

Due to the high quality of the applications, the panel recommended the transfer of two applications for consideration under the Individual Arts Bursary Award Scheme.
