JOINT POLICING COMMITTEE

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

At Meeting of Limerick City and County Council held on 8th July, 2019, Councillor Catherine Slattery was nominated as one of the Members to represent the Council on the Joint Policing Committee. Councillor Slattery has submitted her resignation from the Joint Policing Committee and consequently a vacancy now exists on the Committee.

Membership of the Joint Policing Committee is governed by Guidelines issued under the Garda Síochána Act, 2005. Paragraph 16.5.4. of the Guidelines states :

“A person appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the person in whose place he or she is appointed. A member who is a local authority Elected Member shall cease to be a member of the Committee if (i) he or she resigns by notice in writing to the local authority; (ii) he or she becomes disqualified for membership of the local authority; or (iii) he or she ceases to be a member of the local authority”.

Therefore, the Member nominated to fill the casual vacancy created by Councillor Slattery's resignation will fill the vacancy on the Joint Policing Committee for the remainder of the lifetime of the current Council.

A Resolution of the Council is now required to nominate a replacement Member.

Is mise, le meas,

James Clune
