CASUAL VACANCY

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

I refer to my correspondence of 25th March, 2022, (copy attached) in relation to the casual vacancy which has arisen on the Council consequent on the resignation of John Costelloe, Councillor. The procedure to be followed for the filling of the vacancy is as set out in Section 19 of the Local Government Act, 2001, as amended, a copy of which has already been circulated. The following points should be noted in relation to the filling of casual vacancies:

- A casual vacancy shall be filled by the co-option by the Local Authority of a person to fill the vacancy, subject to such person being nominated by the same registered political party who nominated for election or co-option the Member who caused the vacancy.
- A person is not to be proposed at a meeting of the Local Authority for co-option without his or her prior written consent.
- A co-option shall be made, after due notice, at the next meeting of the Local Authority after the expiration of 14 days from the occurrence of the vacancy or as soon thereafter as circumstances permit.

It is now proposed to fill the casual vacancy at the Council Meeting on 23rd May, 2022.

Casual Vacancy

A Chomhairleoir, a chara,

I refer to notification received from Councillor John Costelloe of his decision to resign from the position of Councillor with Limerick City and County Council with effect from 1st April, 2022. Consequently, a casual vacancy now exists in the membership of the Council which must be filled in accordance with relevant legislation.

The procedure to be followed is set out in Section 19 of the Local Government Act, 2001, as amended, a copy of which is attached for your information. The following points should be noted in relation to the filling of the casual vacancy:

- A casual vacancy shall be filled by the co-option by the Local Authority of a person to fill the vacancy, subject to such person being nominated by the same registered political party who nominated for election or co-option the Member who caused the casual vacancy.
- A person is not to be proposed at a Meeting of the Local Authority for co-option without his or her prior written consent.
- A co-option shall be made, after due notice, at the next Meeting of the Local Authority after the expiration of 14 days from the occurrence of the vacancy or as soon thereafter as circumstances permit.

The filling of the casual vacancy will be included as an item for consideration at the May Meeting of the Council to be held on 23rd May, 2022.

It will also be necessary to fill the vacancies created on the following Committees:

- Travel and Transportation Strategic Policy Committee.
- Home and Social Development Strategic Policy Committee.
- Joint Policing Committee.

Section 19 of Local Government Act, 2001, as amended

Casual Vacancies

19.—(1) A casual vacancy in the membership of a local authority occurs—

- (a) where Section 16(1) applies,
- (b) upon the death or resignation (including deemed resignation by virtue of Section 18(4)) of a member of a local authority,

F25 [(c) in such circumstances as are set out in articles 25, 28, 124 and 125 of the Local Elections Regulations 1995 (S.I. No. 297 of 1995),]

- (d) in such circumstances as may be prescribed by Regulations made by the Minister under Section 27, or
 - (e) in such circumstances as are referred to in Section 15(1) of the Local Elections (Petitions and Disqualifications) Act, 1974.
- (2) It is the duty of the meetings administrator to notify the members of the local authority in writing on becoming aware that a casual vacancy has or may have occurred.
- (3)
- (a) A casual vacancy shall be filled by the co-option by the local authority of a person to fill the vacancy and except where paragraph (c) or (d) or (e) of subsection (1) apply, subject to such person being nominated by the same registered political party who nominated for election or co-option the member who caused the casual vacancy.
 - (b) Where the person causing the casual vacancy was a non-party candidate at his or her election to the local authority, the vacancy shall be filled by the co-option by the local authority of a person to fill the vacancy (except where paragraph (c) or (d) or (e) of subsection (1) apply) in accordance with such requirements and procedures as may be set out in its standing orders.
 - (c) A local authority shall in making standing orders consider the inclusion of provisions for the purposes of paragraph (b).

- (4) (a) A co-option shall be made, after due notice, at the next meeting of the local authority after the expiration of 14 days from the occurrence of the vacancy or as soon after the expiration of the 14 days as circumstances permit.
- (b) In this subsection "due notice" means not less than 3 clear days' notice given in writing to every member of the local authority.
- (5) A person is not to be proposed at a meeting of the local authority for co-option without his or her prior written consent.
- (6) A person co-opted to fill a casual vacancy shall be a member of the local authority until the next ordinary day of retirement of members of that local authority unless he or she sooner ceases to be a member.
