RE: Nomination to the Board of Ballyhoura Development

Dear Ms. Flannery,

Ballyhoura Development is holding its Annual General Meeting on 8th June 2022. At this AGM, Cllr. Michael Murphy, one of Limerick County Council's nominations has informed us that he is due to rotate from our Board to another and will no longer sit on our Board.

The Board and staff of Ballyhoura Development would like to express our sincere gratitude to Limerick County Council for nominating Cllr. Murphy to the Board of Directors. Cllr. Murphy's input during his time on the Board is much appreciated by the Board and staff members of Ballyhoura Development.

The Board is cognisant of its Equality Policy and is striving to have a better balance of gender on the Board. In this regard I would ask, that in making a decision as to who will replace Cllr. Murphy as the Limerick City and County Council nominee, a female nominee is selected for consideration.

Yours sincerely

Pádraig Casey
Chief Executive Officer
