Dear Mr. Leahy,

Thank you for your correspondence and please accept my apologies for the delay in issuing a response.

As Minister for Transport, I am responsible for the overall policy and funding of Active Travel infrastructure. The allocation of this funding to the various local authorities falls to the National Transport Authority (NTA) who are responsible for overseeing the delivery of both new projects and upgrading of existing infrastructure.

Investment in Active Travel infrastructure has increased significantly in recent years, with around €290 million allocated to the NTA for such projects this year alone.

Noting the role of the NTA in the matter, they are best placed to respond to the issue you have raised and can be contacted at info@nationaltransport.ie.

I hope the above is of assistance to you.

With best wishes,

Eamon Ryan
Minister for Transport
