Fáilte-Welcome

The Broadford Ashford Walking Trails are located in rural West Limerick, nestled into the Mullaghareirk mountain range. The majestic landscape of rolling hills, open farmland and forest paths is ideal walking terrain. Each of the 6 routes varying in distance from 6km to 20km have been carefully selected to provide spectacular views over County Limerick. All walks are fully waymarked and have illustrated storyboards in the picturesque villages of Broadford and Ashford.

Specific map brochures are available locally or to download at www.walkbroadfordashford.com

The perfect mix that you seek from an Irish holiday-people, history, scenery and activity - is to be found in this one small corner of Ireland.

Walk Directions KILLAGHOLEHANE WAY (return)

Begin this walk by visiting Broadford Wildlife Arboretum on the eastern side of the trailhead. Here the 26 native trees and shrubs have been planted and can be identified and admired on the short circular trail around the arboretum.

B – A. Retrace your steps and return via the same route, following the purple arrows, to the trailhead in Broadford.
