Launch of Limerick Road Safety Plan

Limerick City and County Council, in partnership with An Garda Síochána, launched the Limerick Road Safety Plan - a comprehensive initiative aimed at enhancing road safety throughout the community.

Developed in collaboration with the Limerick Road Safety Working Together Group, the plan outlines strategic actions to reduce collisions and fatalities on Limerick's roads.

The Limerick Road Safety Plan, spanning the period to 2030, is aligned with the Government's Road Safety Strategy 2021-2030, with a commitment to 'Vision Zero,' ultimately striving for zero deaths and serious injuries on the roads by 2050. The strategy is led by a Safe System approach, which is viewed as best practice globally in the delivery of road safety strategies.

Key aims of the Limerick Road Safety Plan include creating safer road environments, improving cooperation among agencies, promoting responsible road user behaviour through education and awareness, and supporting national road safety objectives.

The Road Safety Working Together Group, comprising representatives from Limerick City and County Council, An Garda Síochána, Emergency Services, and Community Organisations, played a pivotal role in developing the plan. Their collective dedication reflects a shared commitment to fostering positive change and enhancing road safety in Limerick.

in an exhibition. This project is a collaboration between Healthy Limerick, the Arts Office and Limerick Libraries, as well as the other partners on the steering group. An RFQ (Request for Quotation) for participatory artists was circulated in April via the Arts office.

GAA Wellbeing Boards: The GAA Health and Wellbeing Boards initiative was launched on 22 April with the Mayor of the City and County of Limerick, Councillor Gerald Mitchell, in attendance.

Limerick Food Partnership

The desk research piece (scoping and reviewing), as part of a wider piece of research funded by Healthy Ireland Limerick, is complete.

Separately, Limerick Food Partnership's project, The Food Finder: Mapping Limerick's Food Environment, is one of nine shortlisted projects advancing to the Citizens' Assembly. This project proposal is seeking funding of €10,000 to develop a detailed map of Limerick City and County's food environment which will be available on a publicly accessible GIS platform featuring interactive food environment maps and data.

Creative Ireland: Creative Health and Wellbeing in the Community: The Healthy Ireland Co-Coordinator, along with the Age friendly Programme Manager, collaborated with the Creative Ireland Office and the HSE to submit a proposal to the Creative Ireland: Creative Health and Wellbeing in the Community, funding stream. Three proposals were received and it was recommended that the proposal from Helium Arts go forward from this region. There is €70,000 available across Community Healthcare Organisation 3 (CHO 3) and the administration of the initiative is led by the Tipperary Arts office. If successful, this project will benefit children aged 8-12 and 13+ with chronic health conditions located in the Mid-West through their participation in creative activities.

Bin Waivers Scheme

Seenager Information Morning

The Healthy Age Friendly Homes Mid-West Team attended the 'Seenager Information Morning' hosted by West Limerick Resources on 18 April. The purpose of this event was to target older adults in West Limerick and provide them with information talks and information brochures from the various stakeholders.

The event was held in the Longcourt Hotel in Newcastle West, Co. Limerick, and attended by the Regional Programme Manager for the Mid-West, Karen Fennessy, and Limerick Coordinator, Jillian Robinson. There was a good attendance by older people living in the area and lots of interest at the Healthy Age Friendly Homes stand.

At the event, there were some great information talks on the following subjects, which were beneficial to all:

- Claire Flynn – Mental Health Ireland 'Continuing Positive Mental Health throughout our Life.'
- Michelle Gilbourne, Solicitor – 'Getting legal ready for the 3rd Act.'
- Karen Fennessy – Regional Programme Manager Mid-West 'Healthy Age Friendly Homes Programme.'
- Marie O'Connor – Local Link Limerick – 'Rural Transport Limerick – Keeping you connected.'

Comhairle na nÓg

A presentation was given to the Community, Leisure and Culture Strategic Policy Committee on 10 April by three members of Limerick Comhairle na nÓg. It was agreed that some of the issues covered in the presentation were applicable across all age groups and highlighted the need to listen to the voice of young people, taking on board their concerns.

Lifelong Learning

The 14th Annual Limerick Lifelong Learning Festival ran from 15 - 21 April. The theme for 2024 was 'Learn, Grow, Explore in 2024.' There were 150 events - all free - during the festival, including in-person and online events. The Libraries hosted lunchtime events covering wellbeing, heart health and living well at home. The flagship project was held on 18 April and included short interactive learning experiences such as painting, singing, music, games, line dancing, chair yoga, poetry and crafts.

Healthy Limerick and partners organised a series of free lunchtime health information talks as part of the Lifelong Learning festival. The talks centred on the key areas of work within the Healthy Ireland framework and were delivered at four locations across the city and county.

As a participant in the Irish Network of Learning Cities Shared Island programme, Limerick City and County Council was represented at a series of events in Cork on 11 April during the Lifelong Learning festival to build on the strong cooperation that exists between the UNESCO Learning Cities of Cork, Derry/Strabane, Belfast, Limerick, Dublin and Waterford

- The Local Studies Department delivered a number of events for Limerick's Lifelong Learning Festival:
 - The Limerick Soviet Exhibition was on display in the library for a fortnight. It tells the story of mid-April 1919, when Limerick Trade Unions and workers protested the imposition of martial law in the city by calling a general strike and establishing a 'Soviet' to manage the city's affairs, even issuing its own currency.
 - A public talk on the 1904 Limerick Boycott was very well attended. The talk examined the events that followed two anti-Semitic sermons by a Redemptories priest in January 1904, and considered how this relatively minor episode came to be remembered in Irish Jewish and non-Jewish memory as a Russian-style pogrom which all but destroyed Limerick's Jewish community. There were 45 attendees on the night.
 - Researching Your Family History Online, an afternoon workshop with the Local Studies Librarian, was well received. With a focus on Limerick, the workshop took participants through the available online resources for Irish genealogical research, including census returns, civil and ecclesiastical records, burial records, and land records, registers of electors, trades' directories, and local newspapers.
- Work on of the Department's 'Centenaries' project for 2024, Limerick in the 1920s: A Documentary History, progressed.
- Adare – On 24 April, author, Sheila Quealey, facilitated a creative writing workshop in Adare Library attended by 17 members of the Adare Women's 2020 Club. Limerick City Gallery of Art (LCGA)

- The exhibitions, COSMUS by Brigid McLeer, the collaboration with Crawford Art Gallery to mark the 100th anniversary of the Friends of the National Collections of Ireland (FNCI) and, Searching in the Dark, by Eddie Cahill, all finished on 07 April. The exhibitions continued to attract significant numbers for the run of the exhibition of around 9,394. The figures have increased on last year.
- The 2024 TEST SPACE Residency artist, Michella Perera, started her onsite residency in the Herbert Gallery at LCGA and continued her plans for a series of free workshops which she will be giving during her time at LCGA. In particular, she has reached out to Mary Immaculate College and PAUL Partnership who have been very responsive and co-operative.
- Mountains Fall on Us by Austin McQuinn opened on 25 April with a live performance from Austin launching the exhibition, which was very successful. This exhibition is a reclamation and revisiting of important materials that McQuinn has employed in his long practice, living and working in Ireland. McQuinn is a visual artist and live art performance expert and his studio practice is supported with major awards from the Arts Council and the acquisition of work for public and private collections in Ireland and the United States. His recent book on sound, animality and performance was reissued this year by Penn State University Press.
- LCGA continued to exhibit selections from the Permanent Collection on a rotation basis to expand the use of separate exhibition galleries within the building.
- LCGA negotiated with The Arts Council and The Model Gallery, Sligo, in relation to loaning a number of artworks from the Permanent Collections for inclusion in an exhibition to include Rising Swan by Patrick Collins and Chairopplanes by Jack B. Yeats. LCGA also received a request to loan artworks by Walter Osborne to a US-based institution/gallery scheduled for 2025.

- Research and meetings continued with future programme participants, including site visits by artists and curators.
- Various community groups continued to use the Gallery for meetings and events. These include University of the Third Age (U3A) who regularly hold their poetry and music meetings in the Gallery.
- LCGA, in collaboration with Limerick and Clare Education and Training Board, hosted an exhibition by Brandon Hanley which was part of its Arts Festival Week 2024.

Limerick Museum

- On 04 April, the Mayor of the City and County of Limerick, Councillor Gerald Mitchell, performed the official opening of Unboxing, an exhibition of works by Wilma Visser. For the Exhibition, Wilma created a series of artworks that respond to the artefacts in the Museum. Visitors were able to walk through the Museum and see the connection made between the Museum collection and art works. Unboxing was one of several art exhibitions that the Museum has hosted based on responses to the Museum's large and eclectic collection, accumulated over the past 117 years.
- In preparation for the forthcoming exhibition on the large and significant Krups Engineering firm which Limerick Museum will be holding in partnership with Limerick Enterprise Development Partnership (LEDP), three very successful open days were held at the LEDP offices in Roxboro, on 09, 10 and 11 April for those who wished to loan or donate objects and memorabilia for the exhibition. Many former Krups staff members attended and the Museum harvested a large amount of relevant objects, while several oral history interviews were also recorded.
- As part of the Limerick Lifelong Learning Festival, the Museum staff gave well-attended tours of the Museum on 15 and 18 April. In addition, the Friends of Lace, Limerick, hosted a lace demonstration in the Museum on 18 April.

Poetry Day Ireland

Poetry Day Ireland 2024 took place on 25 April. Celebrating its 10th birthday this year, Poetry Day Ireland is an annual island-wide celebration of poetry which invites the nation to read, write, and share a poem on the day. Limerick Poet, Edward O'Dwyer, hosted a poetry event in Draíocht, Adare, from 2 p.m. – 3 p.m., a celebration of Poetry Day, and of Shakespeare's birthday. Six poets, D'or Seifer, Michael Durack, Marie Studer, Thomas Collins, Breda Spaight and Edward O'Dwyer took part in the event. They performed a sonnet of choice from Shakespeare's collection and expounded on the reasons for their choice. They also each read an original poem influenced by 'Will the Thrill' and talked about their process for writing it.

Strategic Fund for Culture and Arts Scheme 2024

Limerick Arts Office manages the 2024 Strategic Fund for Culture and Arts Scheme, which was developed by Limerick City and County Council to facilitate culture and arts organisations and practitioners, in leveraging funds from national and international sources. This, in turn, helps support a vibrant creative culture in Limerick. In April, seven practitioners were given letters of support.

It will also service Clare County Council and Kerry County Council and will greatly speed up the procurement of design teams. The final process to appoint the six framework lots on e-tenders was begun, and contract packs were prepared to be signed by all parties. Current activity on site: The initial archaeological dig necessitated a second more detailed exploration. Archaeologists commenced work on site in April. This second stage dig will follow the line of the city wall in its entirety across the site, and establish the exact location of the opening of the Little island gate believed to be in this location. It will also clarify the extent of other extensions from the wall, found in the first stage dig, facing Island road. The dig will also establish whether there are any remnants of the earlier circuit of the city wall at the interface between Exchange Street and Bishop Street. The dig will inform the pre-planning design work starting in parallel.

GoGreenRoutes

- GoGreenRoutes (2020-2024) is a €10.5m EU-funded project sowing the seeds for increased nature-connectedness across Europe, Latin America and China. It focuses on physical activity, nature connection and nature-based solutions. Limerick City and County Council's target area is the Castletroy greenway.
- GoGreenRoutes and the Castletroy Greenway was the subject matter for ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainability, the world's leading network of local and regional governments committed to sustainable development, podcast entitled; 'What happens when you involve communities in the creation of new green space?'
- GoGreenRoutes submitted an application for the Local Government Awards under the heading 'Supporting Sustainable Communities.'

- GoGreenRoutes free Citizen Science 'train the trainer' Workshop took place on 23 April.

URBACT IV Green Place

- Limerick is one of ten partner cities in the URBACT GreenPlace Project who will collaborate on urban regeneration plans in respective specified areas. The objective of the Green Place project is the urban regeneration of forgotten places, changing urban spaces that have lost their current functionality to be friendly to residents, the environment and the city and to support and enhance the provision of quality green spaces in derelict urban settings.
- The focus area for the project is the City Wall and proximity of green spaces to the City Wall. It includes the green areas of Johnsgate, St. Michael's cemetery and Watergate Flats.
- The project progressed further in April with the third meeting of the URBACT local group, comprising of a number of stakeholders including various departments in the Council, resident groups, Tidy Towns, Gardaí, Mary Immaculate College and Limerick Civic Trust, to discuss issues and challenges for the project.
- A landscape plan has been prepared for the project area and feedback was sought at the meeting from the URBACT local group.
- The output from the project is an Integrated Action Plan (IAP). It will be a policy instrument that will be used to respond in a concrete way to the specific challenge of dealing with the challenges associated with derelict areas in urban settings.
