1. Trade and Investment

- It was announced that North American Bancard (NAB), a US-based fintech, is to establish an R&D centre-of-excellence in Limerick City which will lead to the creation of 54 jobs. Headquartered in Troy, Michigan USA, North American Bancard is a leading payment technology innovator. The open roles are in the areas of product managers, architects, designers, developers, engineers and data scientists.
- Growth capital investor, Business Growth Fund (BGF) announced a €4m investment in Eventmaster, a Limerick-based technology platform which provides ticketing, membership, and fundraising software solutions for events, sporting bodies and charities. The investment will see BGF take a minority stake in the company.
- Language interpretation company, Translit, announced that it is joining a British consortium in a move which will create 40 new jobs. The move will see a merger between Translit - which is located at Upper Mallow Street in Limerick city centre - and DA Language, a Manchester-based provider of interpreting services.

- A Night Time Economy (NTE) Stakeholder Engagement plan has been developed, to be delivered in four steps. The first step was the launch of Business and Public Perception Surveys (launched on 25 June and closing on 16 July).
- Extensive engagement with the business stakeholders in the city centre resulted in significant contribution of prizes to support the launch of the public survey.
- The NTE Advisor presented to a group of traders, retailer and vintners in collaboration with the Guards, outlining the NTE Advisor role and approaches to community safety.
- The NTE Advisor sought approval to allocate seed funding to pilot initiatives in the city centre, subject to further planning and to be implemented over the summer period.
- In collaboration with the Arts Office and Creative Ireland, NTE funding was provided for two evening events for Cruinniú na nÓg Late. These were successfully held on 14 June.

Retail Openings

- Variety Coffee opened on Denmark Street. This new addition to our city centre offers customers "good music and an artistic atmosphere" along with incredible coffee art.

Night Time Economy

- Applications for Night Time Economy (NTE) funding for Culture Night Late activities were assessed and grants of €5,000 were awarded to three separate applicants. The programme of events is being developed with support from the NTE Advisor.

2. Digital Services

Limerick City and County Council Broadband Officer, in partnership with Age-Friendly Limerick, distributed tablets to a number of communities throughout County Limerick. These tablets were distributed to four of the sixteen Broadband Connection Points (BCPs) centres located in County Limerick. The following BCP centres received tablets for use by their communities: Askeaton Community Centre, Abbeyfeale Community Centre, Cappamore Community Centre and Coolcappa Community Centre. The distribution of these tablets to each of the four community owned and run BCP centres is an initiative by Limerick City and County Council to promote the use of high speed fibre broadband by all members of the community for e-health, entertainment, education, connecting to family and friends or using our online public services. i.e. motor tax, library services, planning queries, MyPoint Online Public Consultation platform.

3. Local Enterprise Office (LEO) Limerick

On 27 June, the Annual Summer BBQ and Networking Event took place in The Clayton Hotel with guest speaker, Anton Savage. This event was to celebrate 10 years of Local Enterprise Office (LEO) Limerick providing support and guidance to Small and Medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) across Limerick City and County. The event was attended by over 50 clients and consisted of a panel discussion with guest speakers Maura Kearney from Kearney's Home Baking, Nell from Pressed Flowers by Nell and Helen Ryan from the LEO Limerick team. Overall, the event went extremely well with positive feedback from clients who used it as a chance to network with other business owners as well as gather information from Anton and the panel members.

12 training courses took place in June with over 200 clients in attendance throughout the month. The courses varied from social media training to customs training.

FESTIVAL AND EVENTS

Fleadh Cheoil Luimnigh

The annual Fleadh Cheoil Luimnigh owns the June Bank Holiday weekend in Kilfinane, Co. Limerick. The festival included singing sessions, competitions and a performance on TG4 with Musician of the Year 2024, Derek Hickey. Fleadh competitions included musicians of all ages competing to be the best musician in their chosen instrument. The Fleadh hosted music, songs and dance on stage and an on street Céilí. More entertainment included street performances, games, and further music sessions with awards given out in categories of instrument, age, and individual or group.

Limerick Sings International Choral Festival

The Festival took place from 07 to 09 June continuing a fine tradition of choral singing in Limerick. The non-competitive singing spectacular brings choirs from various locations and disciplines together, where they are encouraged to perform their own repertoires. The festival activities included a beginner's workshop with the Swingles, five-time Grammy winners, with a final performance.

There was an open performance at the Cliffs of Moher in Co. Clare and an evening of Choirs in Concert performed at the Redemptorist Church, Limerick, presented by RTE Lyric FM's, Lorcan Murray, all ending in a wakeup, shake up workshop/performance hosted by acclaimed choral conductor, Craig Anthony Lees. The final event that took place was an afternoon Proms Concert in St. John's Cathedral, Limerick, with local and visiting choirs performing a varied selection of music.

Limerick Garden Festival

The festival, now in its fifth year, took place on 16 June at the Milk Market, Limerick. The festival offered garden, plant, and craft stalls, as well as masterclasses and music. The gardening community of Limerick shared its knowledge through expert talks held on the main stage, including Jim McNamara presenting on organic gardening, Lisa Kennedy on growing food in small spaces, Lumen Street Theatre on garden art for young people and Lynda Sheehan on 'my favourite summer plants.' For children, there was face painting, demonstrations for little gardeners, and beekeeping. The event had live music and offered a glorious day out for all garden enthusiasts.

Limerick Summer Proms

The inaugural Summer Proms took place from 21 to 23 June at the University of Limerick Concert Hall. Friday saw the performance of Shine, which was presented by The Dublin LGBTQ+ Pride Festival in collaboration with the RTE Concert Orchestra. On the Saturday, a Midsummer Magic was performed by the Limerick Chamber Orchestra and presented by Simon Delaney and acclaimed soprano, Anna Devin. The final day of Proms was a child-friendly animated film concert, The Magic Piano and The Chopin Shorts.

Welcome to the Neighbourhood

Presented by Askeaton Contemporary Arts, this annual residency programme showcases Irish and International Artists, making and displaying art throughout Askeaton. This year's event was curated by Michele Horrigan and artists, Santiago Borja, Jan McCullagh and Frank Wasser. From 18 to 29 June, various artists held events. The events included artist, Mice Hell, hosting a talk on the history of Irish costume, and a new sign, 'Mussel Lane,' was unveiled by artist, Robin Price, through a collaboration with Askeaton Tidy Towns. Tours were given on the history of the town and public art in the town. A short film was premiered named "Pass Me," a film on the Askeaton Friary and the points of view from characters imbedded in its history. The open day was held on 29 June, exploring the works of the artists in residence.

King John's Castle

Three concerts took place in June, "Live at the Castle," The Coronas, Johnny Marr and The Stunning, and all received positive feedback online via our social media channels. These concerts act as a vehicle for opening up the Castle to a wider target audience that might not necessarily visit the Castle. They generate increased exposure for the Castle and enable us to expand our customer reach, driving footfall during the peak Summer season.

King John's Castle welcomed the Fáilte Ireland 'Digital that Delivers' team to the Castle on 12 June. This team is a vital component of the Fáilte Ireland organisation and is responsible for executing the 'Digital that Delivers' programme across the country, helping visitor attractions such as King John's Castle to enhance their digital expertise in areas such as website design and booking engine capability.

Accommodation and Golf Tour Operators' Briefing

On 26 and 27 June, Fáilte Ireland, in conjunction with Ryder Cup Europe and the Irish Hotels Federation (IHF), held information briefings for the hospitality sector and Irish-based golf tour operators at The Strand Hotel in Limerick which were attended by relevant Council staff.

The sessions provided insights into the initial plans, timelines, and processes regarding accommodation contracting, travel packages and the operation of the tour and travel programme for the 2027 Ryder Cup. The two sessions also provided valuable opportunities for information sharing and networking opportunities with the team from Fáilte Ireland, Ryder Cup Europe, Ryder Cup Travel Services, the Irish Hotels Federation, the Irish Golf Tour Operators' Association and other relevant stakeholder organisations.

DP World Tour Events

As part of the host nation marketing arrangement for the Ryder Cup 2027, the DP (Dubai Port) World Tour is facilitating Tourism Ireland to have a stand at all its European golf events annually promoting Ireland in the lead-up to the Ryder Cup 2027. The Limerick City and County Council Ryder Cup Co-ordinator attended the KLM Open in Amsterdam as part of Tourism Ireland's invite to promote Brand Limerick ahead of Ryder Cup 2027. Industry partners in the Limerick region and wider are being encouraged to avail of this unique opportunity.

Stakeholder Meetings attended in June

In June, the Council was represented at the Government Key Stakeholder Group and Government Steering Group for the Ryder Cup event, as well as a meeting with the Minister for Sport, the McManus Family, Adare Manor and Ryder Cup Europe at Adare Manor.

ZEVI Local Authority Stakeholder Workshop

Members of the Travel and Transport Strategy Department attended the ZEVI Local Authority Stakeholder Workshop in Mullingar, Co. Westmeath. Limerick City and County Council gave a presentation to other local authorities and representatives from the Department of Transport about the development of its Electric Vehicle Charging Strategy and the work undertaken in Limerick to facilitate the development of a network of public EV charging infrastructure.

Draft Electric Vehicle Charging Strategy for Limerick

Limerick City and County Council has given notice of the public display of the Draft Electric Vehicle Charging Strategy for Limerick and extends an invitation for submissions or observations on this draft.

The draft strategy is on public display in Council Offices in Merchant's Quay and Dooradoyle and is also available for public inspection online.

Draft Limerick City and County Council Control of Car Clubs Bye-Laws 2024

Limerick City and County Council proposes to introduce Bye-Laws under Section 199 of the Local Government Act 2001 (as amended) to manage and control the operation of Car Clubs in respect of the administrative area of the Metropolitan District of Limerick.

The Council has now drawn up Draft Bye-Laws to regulate such operations in the Metropolitan District of Limerick. The Draft Bye-Laws cover the issuing of Operators' licences, and provide for a permit fee for each individual vehicle, in addition to specifying certain minimum standards for operators and vehicles, together with the ability for the Council to prescribe streets/areas where Car Club vehicles should or should not be deployed.

The statutory public consultation for the draft bye-laws commenced in June. The draft bye-laws are on public display in Council Offices in Merchant's Quay and Dooradoyle and are also available for public inspection online.

Limerick City Centre Transport Plan

Limerick City and County Council, in conjunction with the National Transport Authority (NTA) and supported by Jacobs as consultants, has commenced the preparation of the Limerick City Centre Transport Plan.

As part of the initial information gathering for the Plan, Limerick City and County Council has developed a Limerick City Centre Transport Plan Survey and this opened for submissions on 14 June. The primary purpose of this Survey is to collect insights on the existing travel patterns in Limerick City Centre and to explore the views of the people of Limerick as they relate to potential changes to the existing transport network and the rebalancing of road space, including the introduction of bus priority, improved pedestrian facilities and a safer cycling environment.

along with the construction of approximately 17.5Km of motorway to connect Rathkeale to the existing Motorway network at Attyflin (N21/N20/M20 Junction).

The decision by the Government in November 2023 to construct the by-pass in advance of the remaining elements of the project is designed to facilitate the potential early delivery of the road ahead of the Ryder Cup in Adare Manor in 2027. The by-pass will divert any unnecessary through traffic away from Adare and remove a significant point of congestion on the N21, improving the safety and quality of life for people living and working in the village, and facilitate improvements to the urban realm.

Local Studies

- Work on the Department's 'Centenaries' project for 2024, Limerick in the 1920s: A Documentary History, progressed.
- There were 56 onsite visits by researchers to the Local Studies Department in June.
- The Department handled 64 queries, primarily on local and family history.

Other Branches

- Abbeyfeale Library celebrated Cruinníú na nÓg on 15 June with a storytime and sock-puppet making workshop for families, facilitated by Simone and Michael from Storygate.
- Glin Library continued with regular book clubs, community singing and craft club meetings.
- Limerick City Gallery of Art (LCGA)
 - Mountains, Fall on Us by Austin McQuinn finished on 16 June and attracted a large and engaged audience of 8,693. LCGA launched a publication to accompany the exhibition.
 - Two new exhibitions opened on 20 June: Last Act by Marie Hanlon and Rhona Clarke, and In a Dream In a Happy House Shell/Ter Artist Collective. Last Act is a three channel video installation commissioned by LCGA, which presents the climate crisis as something both real and abstract and reflects the human response to a changing earth. Shell/Ter is a collective of five artists: Diana Copperwhite, Niamh McGuinne, Sharon Murphy, Alyson Keahan and Geraldine O'Neill. LCGA has commissioned essays to accompany both these exhibitions.
 - LCGA continued to exhibit a selection of works from the Permanent Collection on a rotation basis expanding the use of separate exhibition galleries within the building. The exhibitions from the Permanent Collection display recent works donated and acquired, as well as works which are firm favourites to local and international visitors.
 - LCGA offered an eight-week residency to Anna O'Leary, a recent graduate from the B. Ed degree course at Limerick School of Art and Design (LSAD). This was announced at the degree ceremony in LSAD in June. A further award, taking the form of an exhibition in the Gallery, was presented to Tina O'Connell.
 - LCGA worked with Light Moves, Open Futures 2024 as part of their international residencies for one week in June.
 - Cruinníú nÓg* held a design workshop in LCGA as part of the national celebration of this event.
 - Research and meetings continued with LCGA programme participants, including site visits by artists and curators.

- Various community groups continued to use the Gallery for meetings and events. These include University of the Third Age (U3A) who regularly hold their poetry and music meetings in the Gallery.

Limerick Museum

- On 06 June, the Mayor of the City and County of Limerick, Councillor Gerald Mitchell, performed the official opening of Four Winds, an art exhibition by Dr. Julie Brazil in Limerick Museum. A native of Wexford, Julie Brazil lectures in Visual Art Education at Mary Immaculate College, Limerick. Her work has been exhibited in-group and solo shows nationally. She conducted Art Educator in Residence Courses in the National Gallery of Ireland in 2015 and 2018 based on Jack Butler Yeats' sketchbooks housed in the Yeats archive. Julie was a member of Contact Studios for over ten years and is now part of James Street Artists' Studios, supported by Limerick City and County Council. Limerick Arts Office kindly supported this exhibition.
- The Shannonside History Festival, Limerick's first ever history festival which was organised by Limerick Civic Trust in partnership with Limerick Museum, featured an exciting programme of events on 01 and 02 June, including a series of lectures by distinguished academics and a well-attended tour of the Limerick Protestant Young Men's Association (LPYMA) building on 97 O'Connell Street.
- Limerick Museum's outreach programme in the city and county continued with two important events. On 07 June, to coincide with polling day for Limerick's first ever Directly Elected Mayor, the Curator gave a lecture on the Limerick Mayoralty since 1197 to the Limerick branch of the University of the Third Age (U3A) movement. The U3A is a world-wide non-profit making movement for mature people. It provides opportunities for older adults to enjoy a range of activities associated with wellbeing in later life. On 25 June, the Curator visited the Hedge School Cottage in Newtown, Clarina, where he gave a talk to the sixth class students from Ballybrown National School on the history of the hedge school that flourished there 200 years ago. It was the first time in 180 years that classes were held in this historic old building.

- On 15 June, and in collaboration with Limerick Arts Office, the Museum displayed a collection of replica crannogs made by a group of children under the direction of Arts Office staff. This was part of the Cruinniú na nÓg, a national initiative that celebrates and encourages participation in culture and creativity through performance, coding, theatre, art and music workshops, readings, screenings, special events and much more.
- The pop-up exhibition, Objects of the Revolution in East Limerick, went on display in the Museum on 26 June. The exhibition, which is part of a project created by the School of Archaeology in UCD in collaboration with Abarta Heritage, tells the story of some of the objects and documents that survived from the War of Independence and Civil War in East Limerick.
- On 28 June, the Museum's resident archaeologist gave two well-attended tours of the Museum to students from Limerick City College.

Community Mentor Network

On 20 June, staff from Limerick City and County Council, along with the Community Mentors, visited the Nearly Zero Energy Building centre (NZEB). The centre is based in Limerick Enterprise Development Partnership (LEDP) Roxboro. The visit offered an opportunity to view the range of courses on offer to their clients. The Mentors also visited the Limerick and Clare Education and Training Board, College of Further Education and Training Campus in O' Connell Avenue and met with a range of Tutors who are delivering courses throughout the Southside and Northside of the City. They gained a greater understanding of the vast range of training and courses available to their clients.

The Community Mentors are working in each of the Regeneration areas to increase the readiness of an individual for progression towards employment/training.

Social Regeneration

Best wishes were extended to Paddy Flannery, Manager of the Moyross Community Enterprise Centre, who retired from his post on 28 June. The community and residents of Moyross, including friends and family, turned out to say farewell and wish him the best of luck in his retirement.

The Mayor of Limerick, John Moran, and Limerick City and County Council's Director General, attended Paddy's retirement. They expressed their gratitude for the 31 years of service and community leadership Paddy provided to the people of Moyross and Limerick.

IBAL REPORT (Irish Business Against Litter)

This study is conducted by An Taisce on behalf of the Irish Business Against Litter (IBAL) and ranked out of a total of 40 towns and cities across Ireland. Limerick City Centre and Limerick South were marked as 'moderately littered,' and ranked at 33rd place for Limerick City Centre and 29th place for Limerick City South (Galvone), its best ever result on this year's IBAL litter survey list. This is an improvement from the previous IBAL report which was ranked 38th place for Limerick City Centre and 34th place for Limerick City South (Galvone). The report shows an overall improvement in litter and a significant decrease in plastic bottles and cans on the streets of Limerick. An Taisce commended Limerick City and County Council for its anti-litter action.

"City areas fared well compared to last year, with notable improvements in Limerick City, Mahon in Cork, Tallaght and North Dublin Inner City. Limerick South (Galvone) recorded its best ever result."

Limerick: A Different Kind of Energy Summer Tourism Campaign

- Continued promotion of Limerick's new and compelling visitor experiences across events and festivals, sport and recreation, dining and nightlife, creative and culture and outdoor and adventure themed pillars.
- The multi-platform summer tourism campaign ran for initial four-weeks but was extended by a further two, to increase engagement. Channels used in the promotion of the campaign, included:
 - A 'Limerick: A Different Kind of Energy' TV ad, which ran across the Sky portfolio of TV channels across late May and into June, including premium spots on the PGA Championship 2024.
 - The creation of a 'Limerick: A Different Kind of Energy Spotify Playlist,' which celebrated a mix of local Limerick musical talent to provide the visitor to Limerick with an immersive experience on their next trip to Limerick.
 - The creation and promotion of a range of fresh, new content across social media and on our digital hub, Limerick.ie
 - Collaborations with three, high-profile social media influencers to increase reach and target new audiences. These collaborations included a family friendly visit, taking in the Shannon Estuary Way and Limerick City with Emma O'Leary, a showcase of the Great Outdoors in Ballyhoura with Trisha Lewis and a Taste of Limerick, celebrating some of Limerick's fantastic food and drink offering with Daragh Curran.

- Marketing also ran two, week-long competitions on national radio stations Today FM (on Louise Cantillon's lunchtime show) and on Classic Hits FM (on Colm and Lucy's Breakfast Show), with the support of local Limerick stakeholders. Prizes included luxurious hotel stays at the Fitzgerald's Woodlands House Hotel, Adare, The Great National South Court Hotel, The Savoy Hotel Limerick, the Limerick Strand Hotel, The Clayton Hotel and the Bedford Townhouse Hotel. Each prize recipient also won a Discover Limerick Pass to allow them explore Limerick's top experiences and attractions for themselves.

Other Activity

- Considerable level of engaging, new content created specifically for digital and social channels including reels, statics and b-roll.
- Marketing secured a feature in a Wild Atlantic Gateway special supplement in The Irish Times on 29 June. The piece, which featured new ad artwork incorporating Brand Limerick's new positioning 'A Different Kind of Energy,' also included editorial promoting Limerick's visitor offer with the Head of Marketing and Communications.
- Continuing progress with asset preparation for upcoming Invest Limerick campaign.
- Continuing preparation for upcoming Limerick Student City campaign.
- Provided support and sponsorship to the ACIS (American Conference for Irish Studies) at Mary Immaculate College, under the Limerick Student City brand.

Social Media

- Management of Marketing & Communications' 14 social media channels including Limerick.ie and Limerick City and County Council accounts, to engage with citizens and promote Limerick to locals, visitors, students, and the business community.
