“I will move at the next Meeting that Limerick City and County Council adopt a "PAW Policy" for the City and County, promoting dog-friendly businesses by displaying a Council-provided paw print symbol and listing them on Limerick.ie. This policy would support pet owners, boost local business, attract pet-friendly tourists, encourage responsible dog ownership, help owners with their mental wellbeing by facilitating activity, and position Limerick as a more inclusive destination. I urge your support for this beneficial initiative.”
