Assessment

The International Band Championship will start at 12:00 from Barrington Street, turning right onto O'Connell Street, staying on the left side of the Monument at The Crescent (with an accessible area located on the right-hand side of the Monument), turning left onto Glenworth Street, then right onto Henry Street, before finishing at Arthur's Quay.

The International Band Championship will consist of up to 1,000 band participants. The Bands will be dropped off at designated locations on Mallow Street and the Bands will assemble, in their formations, on Pery Square and Barrington Street between 10:00 and 10:30.

The audience profile will range from young children to elderly persons with approximately 50,000 people expected to view the parade along a 1.76km route.

In line with festivals best practice, LCCC Festivals and Events propose to designate O'Connell Crescent area a quiet zone at the beginning of the route, ensuring a calmer, sensory-friendly space for individuals and families with additional needs. This area will have also include the universal access area to accommodate persons with reduced mobility.
