Sean Lynch €4,000
Visual Arts

This will be a substantial professional development project, which will showcase Lynch's art practice in the form of an ambitious artist website. It will feature projects made in Moyross, West Limerick and Limerick City Centre. There will be a public event and workshop with associated artists as a community engagement piece following up on the projects.

Chelsea Canavan €4,000
Visual Arts

Canavan will create a visual art- public engagement project through an interactive installation exploring care, memory, and shared knowledge, 'Carry On'. The artist will spend focused reflective time to strengthen their research-led practice and move from engagement-heavy work into a balanced research-led practice capable of producing ambitious new work.

Shirani Bolle €3,000
Visual Arts

This will be a research and development of an art piece feeding into a performance artwork for a solo exhibition at Súil Gallery, Clare by the Limerick based artist. The artist will work with a vocal coach/producer for this performance. The artist will also research and develop their first public workshop to be delivered during the exhibition which will be advertised via EFlux.

Ellen Dillon €4,000
Literature/Poetry

'Not on like birds but under the curve' is a plurilingual poetry project that explores the residues of Irish language in lakeside placenames in south Limerick in the hinterland of Lough Gur, and the connection between language loss and the loss of habitat and biodiversity.

Stephanie Deady €4,000
Visual Arts

The artist will spend a period of 12 months working on a new body of paintings in their studio at Lumen Theatre Roches Street Limerick. Local curators and arts practitioners will be invited to the space to view the work when it is nearer completion as part of the developmental process of the work.

Isabella Oberlander

€4,000

Dance

The artist will invest time in a defined work period, that builds on existing research towards the development of a new full length solo work. This work will be developed in dialogue with two diverse interdisciplinary collaborators, expanding their creative process, skillset and artistic outcomes. This will allow for continuous development of their work.

Gerry Davis

€1,000

Visual Arts

This body of work will consist of a new series of realistic paintings depicting creative spaces within the Lumen Street Theatre building situated on Roches Street. The project revisits Davis's earlier work from 2015-18, which depicted the artists' studios in Wickham Street. Together, these paintings explore the character, atmosphere, and lived experience of Limerick's creative environments.

Mary Nagle

€1,000

Visual Arts

Limerick City Gallery of Art has invited Mary Nagle to exhibit this body of work entitled Murmurare. This body of work in continuing to expand this developing project will be presented to a Limerick audience at this exhibition as a high quality piece of work.
