

Active Travel Scheme Corbally Road

Bulletin No. 24

8th May 2026

Over the past week, preparatory work has been completed, and the final layer of tar has been applied to the footpath outside Scoil Ide.

Next week, excavation works will begin in the footpath area at the entrance to St Munchins on the side nearest Athlunkard bridge.

This footpath will be closed, all pedestrians will have to use the footpath on the residential side of the Corbally road.

Works will also begin at the junction between Lanahrone Avenue and the Corbally Road.

Please see image below of the area outside of Scoil Ide.
