Christmas in Limerick

A Christmas Message

Christmas has always been a time of homecoming. Across Limerick, in our city, towns and villages, it is the season when families gather, neighbours look in on one another, and communities make time for each other. As the seanfhocal goes, ar scáth a chéile a mhaireann na daoine: we live in each other's shelter.

This year's programme, Together for Christmas in Limerick, begins on Saturday 21 November, when Light Up Limerick switches on the lights along O'Connell Street. From there, the season follows a route through the heart of the city. At King John's Castle, which has stood over the Shannon for more than eight centuries, the new Castle Christmas experience welcomes families for the first time. Arthur's Quay Park returns as a festive hub. At the top of O'Connell Street, the Christmas Fayre brings people together on the Crescent, beneath the statue of Daniel O'Connell and among some of the finest Georgian architecture in Ireland. Along the way, an expanded animation and projection programme, including artwork by local children, adds colour to our streets during these long winter evenings.

This guide sets out everything taking place across the city and county, from enduring traditions to this year's new additions. We hope you will find something in it to share with the people you love.

Our sincere thanks to the community groups, volunteers, businesses, Councillors, Council staff and organisers whose work makes Christmas in Limerick possible.

Nollaig Shona agus Athbhliain faoi Mhaise daoibh go léir. Wishing you and your loved ones a peaceful Christmas and a happy, healthy New Year.

John Moran, Mayor of Limerick

Cllr Tom Ruddle - Príomh Chomhairleoir

Dr Pat Daly, Director General, Limerick City and County Council
